1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 11-32, 60, 61, 66-75 and 81-84, drawn to a method uploading or downloading credit card and drivers license information between a portable unit and an entity, classified in class 455, subclass 419.
- II. Claims 76-80, drawn to a method for establishing communication between a portable unit and automobile lock or home lock or garage lock, classified in class 340, subclass 542.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different modes of operation, different functions, or different effects (MPEP § 806.04, MPEP § 808.01). In the instant case the different inventions I and II have different functions. Invention I verifies credit card and driver license information. Invention
